

PRODUCT NEWSDemand grows for application-specific toolholders

Maintaining manufacturing competitiveness requires continual improvement in productivity and part quality. As a result, shops seek to fine-tune every aspect of each operation.

The focus on improving individual operations is driving demand for toolholders that solve specific problems and fill certain performance niches. The constantly growing number of toolholding choices illustrates this trend.

To read the complete article, please click here.

PRODUCT NEWSNew AngleHeads™ Available

Our expanded line of CustomTools™ AngleHeads™ is designed to easily and effectively upgrade your machine tool's capabilities to reduce the number of work setups needed for complex jobs by accessing previously unavailable planes. Reduced setups translate into increased productivity and precision. Lyndex-Nikken is pleased to offer AngleHeads™ solutions that include:

CAT 40 -- ER16, ER20, ER25, and ER32
CAT 50 -- ER16, ER20, and ER32

These AngleHeads™ are available now. Please contact us for more details.

CURRENT PROMOTIONSThe Summer Special is On!

It's time for our Summer Special. This sale applies CT/BT/NMTB/R8 shell millholders, stub mill holders, jacobs taper holders, morse taper holders, tap holders, end mill holders and collet chucks found in our Lyndex-Nikken Standard Product catalog.

The sale does not apply to special toolholders, milling chucks, custom tools, accessories, or collets.

For more information on the huge Summer Special, please view the announcement here.